

on the mountain – safety starts with you!

- For a safe skiing or riding experience, please review mountain and weather conditions before you hit the slopes.
- The various difficulty ratings on the map are relative to the Snowbird area and cannot be compared to other ski areas. Start with green runs first. During periods of low visibility or other inclement weather and snow conditions, the degree of difficulty of the ski runs may change. Check with Ski Patrol or any Mountain Employees for current conditions. It is critical that you know, understand and obey Your Responsibility Code as listed on the other side of this trail map.
 - Obey all "SLOW SKIING" signs. All blue and green runs at Snowbird are slow skiing areas. Fast or machine skiing and snowboarding are not permitted at Snowbird. Skiing or snowboarding irresponsibly will result in loss of skiing and snowboarding privileges without compensation.
 - Obey all "CLOSED-AVALANCHE DANGER" and "CLOSED AREA" signs. It is unlawful for any person to enter any area designated as closed or unsafe; violations will be prosecuted. Enter avalanche control areas through open gates only. After passing through an open gate, HIKING ABOVE THE GLIDING TRAVERSE IS NOT PERMITTED.
 - Areas beyond the ski area boundary are not patrolled or maintained and Snowbird assumes no responsibility for the safety and welfare of skiers going beyond the boundary.
 - RISK OF AVALANCHE WARNING: Avalanche hazard reduction measures within the ski area boundaries help reduce the risk of avalanches but cannot eliminate the possibility of an avalanche occurring in avalanche prone areas and run-out zones open for skiing.
 - The flying of drones is not permitted at Snowbird. snowbird.com/drones

the inherent risk of skiing

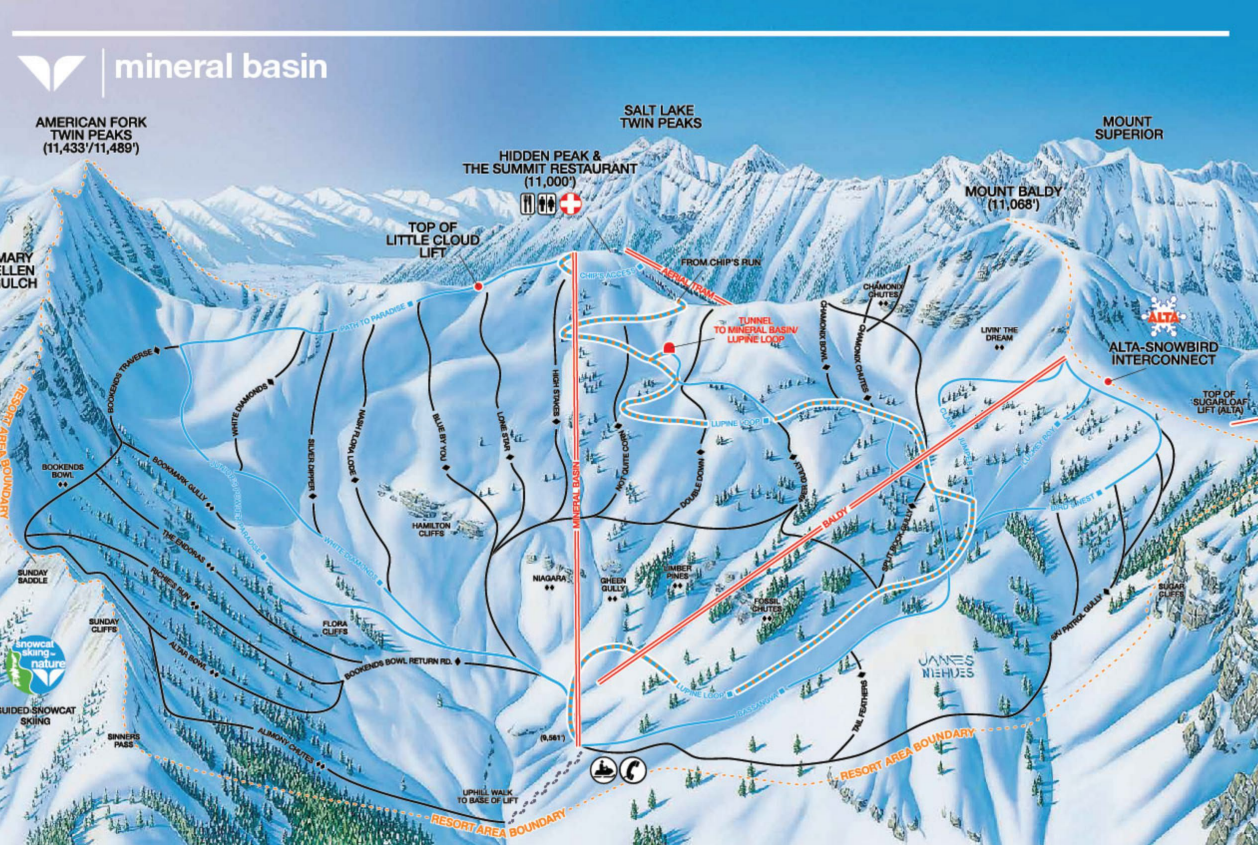

No skier (any person present) in a ski area for the purpose of engaging in the sport of skiing, Nordic, freestyle, or other types of ski jumping, using ski, sled, tube, snowboard or any other device that makes any claim against, or recover from any ski area operator for injury resulting from any of the inherent risks of skiing, which means those dangers or conditions which are an integral part of the sport of recreational, competitive, or professional skiing, including, but not limited to:

- (a) Changing weather conditions, avalanches, and snow immersion;
- (b) Snow or ice conditions, as they exist or may change including but not limited to, avalanches, hard packs, ice, powder, packed powder, wind pack, corn, crust, slush, cut-up snow, or machine made snow;
- (c) Surface or subsurface conditions such as bare spots, forest growth, rocks, stumps, streambeds, cliffs, trees, tree wells, and other natural objects;
- (d) Variations in steepness in terrain whether natural or as a result of slope design, snow making or grooming operations, and other terrain modifications such as terrain parks, and terrain features such as jumps, rails, fun boxes, and all other constructed and natural features such as half pipes, quarter pipes, or freestyle bump berms;
- (e) Impact with lift towers, snowmobiles, snow vehicles, and/or other structures and their components, such as signs, poles, fences or enclosures, hydrants, or water pipes;
- (f) Collisions with other skiers;
- (g) Participation in, or practicing or training for, competitions or special events;
- (h) Failure of a skier to ski within the skier's own ability.

Sec. 78B-4-401 UTAH CODE ANN.

BE AWARE THAT SNOW-MAKING AND/OR SNOW-WORKING (where applicable) may be in progress. If you cannot accept the inherent risks of the sport, please do not ski at this area.
